(Carrollton, TX) On February 12, 2008, 4Front Engineered Solutions, Inc. (manufacturer of Kelley aFX and Serco AB dock levelers) and Systems, Inc. came to an agreement settling a lawsuit filed in 2006 in the Eastern District of Wisconsin in which 4Front alleged that Systems was infringing on 4Front's patents related to air-powered dock levelers. In the settlement agreement Systems has acknowledged the validity of the patents asserted in that suit and has paid compensation to 4Front. Systems, Inc., and its affiliates will continue to manufacture, sell and support its air-powered dock levelers. The specific terms of the settlement agreements are not disclosed.
